

Dr Tan Kok Heng

Dr Tan Kok Heng currently heads the investment and real estate management business of a major listed property group.

He obtained his Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Estate Management from the National University of Singapore, Graduate Diploma in Financial Management from the Singapore Institute of Management, Masters in International Business from the Curtin University of Technology and Doctorate from the Central Queensland University.

He currently oversees the investment activities within the Company with emphasis in monetising its real estate assets as well as developing strategic partners/investors who are able to value add in accelerating the development of its land bank.

He is also a member of the Rotary Club of Bugis Junction and was the Past President in 2008/2009.